Water & Housing Forum: What You Need to Know About the Administration's New Initiatives

Friday
June 14, 2019
11am - 1pm

The Cove at UCI Applied Innovation
5141 California Ave. #200
Irvine, CA 92617
Lunch available at 11am

With a new Administration in the State Capitol, many new initiatives are being proposed that will no doubt affect how we live, work, and play. Regarding Governor Newsom's housing plans, he has stated, "Our state's affordability crisis is undermining the California Dream and the foundations of our economic well-being." In addition to addressing the affordability issue, let's not forget about a natural precious resource needed to support housing and new development - water.

Come learn about the latest proposals being discussed and what local and statewide agencies are doing to ensure we continue to support the economic growth of our region.
